

21 Karla's birthday party

Karla: Hi Caroline. This is Karla.
I'm sorry you were ill and couldn't come to my birthday party, it was really good. We missed you and I want to tell you about it.
I was thirteen and thirteen people came. Only you and Sarah couldn't come.
I got some really nice presents. A pretty scarf from Dave, a pair of blue sunglasses from Melanie and some perfume from Hannah. It smells of flowers. My brother said it was very expensive. But what does my brother know about perfume?
And would you believe it, Greg brought flowers. They were the most beautiful flowers, but they weren't for me. They were for my mum! Greg is so polite. But then he gave me tickets for the cinema, two tickets if you want to know.
I think Greg likes me. And I like him ... a bit. But that's another story.
The food at my party was delicious. My dad baked a cake, his first cake ever. It was great, but it was too small. He thought I'd only invite eight people. He had to go to the new department store and buy a big apple cake. It was so good.
We did all kinds of activities. We played some party games and then we danced ... in the living room ... even the boys danced. I think it was because they liked the music. It was great.
The only thing was that Snuffy, our dog, jumped on the table and ate Rajiv's pizza. But he just laughed.
That's all for now. I'll call you later.
