

8 Where did Lenny go?

Lenny: I started walking at the Sherlock Holmes Museum.
I went straight on and then turned left into Marylebone Road.
I passed the University of Westminster and turned right just behind St Marylebone Church.
I went past the small park in front of the church. I turned left into Devonshire Street.
Then I walked straight on. It was quite a long way and I crossed seven streets.
Then I turned left again. After about 100 metres, the place I was looking for was right in front of me.
