

Adverbs of manner (3)

Adverb or adjective? Cross out the wrong word.

Example: The policeman was very angry / ~~angrily~~.

- The policeman looked at us very angry / ~~angrily~~.
- When the policeman talked to us, we were very nervous / ~~nervously~~.
- Really, we have never been so nervous / ~~nervously~~ before.
- I couldn't catch the thief because he ran away so quick / ~~quickly~~.
- He was really quick / ~~quickly~~.
- So you were too slow / ~~slowly~~?
- Yes, I ran too slow / ~~slowly~~.
- He counted his pocket money careful / ~~carefully~~.
- Please, be careful / ~~carefully~~ with that dog. It can be dangerous.

Word order; adverbs of manner

Put the words in the right order. Then write down the sentence.

Example: teacher carefully You listen to should your

You should listen to your teacher carefully.

1. Chinese Rajiv speaks badly

2. likes Caroline's mother dancing very much

3. phone number Please your write clearly

4. David the classroom left quickly when the lesson was over

5. read Emma slowly his letter
