

1 Bob and his new friends

Mum: Hi Bob. How are you? Tell me about your new school.

Bob: Well, the students in my new class are very friendly. And the teachers are OK, too. There are twelve boys and fourteen girls in my class. I sit at a desk with Samuel. He is really nice. He is a big football fan like me. But he is an Arsenal fan.

Mum: And you like Chelsea. Is that a problem?

Bob: Oh no! No problem for Samuel.

Mum: So does Samuel play in a football club?

Bob: Oh yes, he does. The training is on Mondays and Fridays. I can come, too!

Mum: That's great.

Bob: And you know what, Samuel has got a fish for a pet. A goldfish, like me. Isn't that funny? His goldfish has got a French name, Mathieu.

Mum: And your goldfish has got a Russian name: Vladimir. Has Samuel got any brothers or sisters?

Bob: Samuel has got a sister, Isabella. You know, his parents are not from England. They are from France.

Mum: Interesting! Have you got any homework for tomorrow?

Bob: No, I don't. No homework! So, can I go and meet Samuel in the park to play football? Amy, a friend of Samuel's, is coming, too. Amy is a good football player. I just have to get my football shoes ...

Mum: That's OK, Bob. Have fun!

Bob: Thank you, Mum. Bye!
