

1 Bob's first day at school

Amy: Hi, who are you? Are you new at Haverstock School?

Bob: Yes, I am. My name is Bob. I'm from Stratford.

Amy: Stratford? Where is that?

Bob: Oh, that's in London.

Amy: I see. Have you got any brothers or sisters?

Bob: Yes, I have. I've got one brother, but no sister.

Amy: How old is your brother? And what's his name?

Bob: My brother is 18. His name is Colin.

Amy: What are your hobbies?

Bob: Well, I really like football. I'm a Chelsea fan. And I like playing football in the park.

Samuel: Are you a Chelsea fan?

Bob: I hope that is not a problem ...?

Samuel: Oh no, that's fine. I'm Samuel and I'm an Arsenal fan.

Bob: So, Samuel, do you play in a team?

Samuel: Yes, I do. We train on Mondays and Fridays. Do you play in a team, too?

Bob: No, I don't. I play with friends in the park.

Samuel: I see ... You can come and train with my team. Playing in a team is fun, you know.
You can come with me on Friday.

Bob: That's great. I'd love to. When does the training start?

Samuel: The training starts at five thirty.

Bob: That's great!
