2. A Game Ein Spiel Simon Says

Meet your friends and don't be lame, try to play an English game!

Simon says

A game for three or more players.

One of the children is Simon. The other children must do what Simon tells them with the command "Simon says".
If Simon says "Simon says jump", the players must jump. Every player that does not jump is out!
But Simon can also say simply "jump" without the phrase "Simon says". Then the players don't have to jump. Every player that does jump is out.

It is important to listen closely to the command, not only to be in action!

3. A Song Ein Lied Oranges and Lemons

Everyone who comes along sing with us an English song!

Oranges and Lemons

Oranges and lemons,
Say the bells of St. Clement's.
You owe me five farthings,
Say the bells of St. Martin's.

When will you pay me?
Say the bells of Old Bailey.

When I grow rich,
Say the bells of Shoreditch.

When will that be?
Say the bells of Stepney.
I'm sure I don't know,
Say the great bell at Bow.

Here comes a deaf boy who can't hear the bells.
Here comes another, let's hear what he tells.
Hi, ho, hi, ho, we'll set you back!

Orange or lemon!

4. A Game Ein Spiel Oranges and Lemons

Meet your friends and don't be lame, try to play an English game!

Oranges and Lemons

Two children form an arch with their arms. They agree in secret which of them is the orange and which the lemon. Everyone sings the song "Oranges and Lemons".
The other children in the game take turns to run under the arch.
At the end of the song the arch falls and one of the players is caught between the arms of the orange and the lemon.
They ask the player, "Will you be an orange or a lemon?" The player goes behind the orange or lemon team leader. The game and singing then starts over again.

At the end of the game there is a tug of war. Are the oranges stronger or the lemons?

5. A Game Ein Spiel Rock! Paper! Scissors!

Meet your friends and don't be lame, try to play an English game!

Rock! Paper! Scissors!

The two players use three hand-signs:
ROCK, formed by a clenched fist.
SCISSORS, formed by the pointer and the middle finger.
PAPER, formed by an open hand with connected fingers.

Each player tries to select the sign which defeats the sign of the other player.
Rock breaks scissors: rock wins!
Scissors cut paper: scissors win!
Paper covers rock: paper wins!

The players both speak aloud, "ROCK! PAPER! SCISSORS!"
With every shout they are raising one hand in a fist and swinging it down.
On the third count, "SCISSORS!" the players form one of the three signs, holding it against the rival.
If both players choose the same sign, there is a tie and the players try again.
