

Simple present or present progressive? (2)

Cross out the part of the sentence that doesn't fit.

Streiche den falschen Teil des Satzes durch.

Example: We can't go out now. It ~~rains~~ / is raining.

1. Where is your sister? – In the kitchen. She makes / is making a meal.
2. Can you speak more slowly? I don't understand / am not understanding you.
3. My father is usually coming / usually comes home at 5.30 p.m.
4. I always read / am always reading before I go to bed.
5. Excuse me. Do you speak / Are you speaking German?

Simple present or present progressive? (3)

Make sentences.

Use the simple present or the present progressive.

Bilde Sätze.

Verwende dabei simple present oder present progressive.

Example: Look over there! David and Charlie/play/football.

David and Charlie are playing football.

1. Where is Caroline? – She's in her room. She/play/a new computer game.
_____

2. Where is Rajiv? – I/not/know.
_____

3. Excuse me, sir. You/speak/English?
_____

4. We must go. You/come?
_____

5. Would you like some lemonade, Emma? – No, thanks! I/not like/lemonade.
_____

