

1 Rebecca's day

Hello, this is me, Rebecca. I'm eleven years old and I go to Hampton Court School in London. My mum wakes me up at quarter to seven in the morning. Then she always brings me a cup of tea. That's really nice. I get up at seven o'clock. I go to the bathroom, wash my face and brush my teeth. At 7.30 my family and I have breakfast. I usually have toast with marmalade. My brother James has cornflakes or a different cereal. Yuck, I don't like muesli.

So, after breakfast, I pack my bag and go to school. I take the bus to school. My bus leaves at seven past eight. Registration is at eight thirty and the first lesson starts at nine. On Mondays it is English with Mrs Taylor. You see, I like English. But I don't like Mrs Taylor very much. She is so boring ... Then it's art, my favourite subject. We draw pictures of our pets there. After art we have PE. We play football or volleyball there. Volleyball is fun but difficult to play.

Lunch break starts at quarter past twelve. I eat my lunch and after lunch I play hockey. I play for our school's team and train three times a week. After the lunch break we have two more lessons. School ends at three thirty. Then I go home and play with Snuffy, our dog. Or I chat with my friends. Then I do my homework and eat with my family. I go to bed at nine.
